

BONDS4JOBS

Reduce hiring risks Break down barriers

The Federal Bonding Program gives employers peace of mind and individuals with difficult backgrounds second chances.

Employers can get $5,000 worth of FREE fidelity bond coverage for each at-risk, hard-to-place job seeker they hire.

- The bonds cover the first six months of employment.
- They protect against losses caused by fraudulent or dishonest acts of bonded employees.
- There is no cost for the employer or the job applicant.

Eligible categories of new hires

- ▶ Veterans
- ▶ Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) recipients
- ▶ Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) recipients
- ▶ Designated community residents
- ▶ Individuals referred from vocational rehabilitation
- ▶ Justice-involved individuals
- ▶ Supplemental Security Income recipients
- ▶ Eligible Summer Youth Employment Program participants
- ▶ Long-term unemployed workers

Employers

The Federal Bonding Program can help you build your workforce AND protect your assets. There's no cost, no deductible, and requesting a bond is easy.

Job seekers

Many people have difficult backgrounds that can make it hard to get hired, but the Federal Bonding Program can help. There's no cost, no risk, and requesting bonding services is easy.

Learn more today

Call: 1-855-459-3773

Visit: bonds4jobs.com

Email: bonds4jobs@jfs.ohio.gov

Contact: Your local OhioMeansJobs Center

OhioMeansJobs Centers

Every county in Ohio has an OhioMeansJobs Center. Employers and job seekers can go there to access a variety of free employment services.

Employers: Post jobs, find candidates, and apply for training programs, hiring incentives, and tax credits.

Job Seekers: Use free public computers and phones to search and apply for jobs, create a resume, and boost your skills.

To find your nearest OhioMeansJobs Center: Go to OhioMeansJobs.com and select "FIND A JOB CENTER" at the bottom of the page.

Department of Job & Family Services

OhioMeansJobs.com

Mike DeWine, Governor

State of Ohio

Matt Damschroder, Director

Ohio Department of Job and Family Services

JFS 01808 (4/2023)

This institution is an equal opportunity provider and employer.

A proud partner of the American Job Center network.